PROJECT

Disha – Online quiz portal for APSIT College - (Present)

Currently I am working on this project with the APSIT College. This portal mainly aims at training students for placement exams, by providing them a platform to give a test and see their performance. So, this platform aggregates quizzes from the staff and/or admin, and is then open to students to give tests. The APIs have been built and tested using Postman. Its impact is expected to increase student placements by ~30-40%, which will greatly affect the institution's reputation and have a domino effect on other aspects as well. Not only that, but it will also help students in achieving a better package.
